"IMPROVING", SAYS VOORHEES

Husky Football Season Opens Friday Against Peninsula 11

Rangel Set At QB; Coach Fears Passes By Carlmont

The 1954 model of the Husky grid machine will be displayed to eager Township fans Friday night when Coach Clyde Voorhees' varsity eleven opens the season against Carlmont.

Football fever-gripped Washington Hi's 1200 students, their parents and pals this week. Hopes ran high. Even the usually pessimistic Voorhees conceded his charges are improving and may "stand a chance", provided they can dodge the infirmary.

King Football officially invades Centerville at 6 p.m. Friday with Coach Gene Johnson's green Puppies playing host to a Carlmont frosh-soph aggregation. The varsity game starts at 8 o'clock.

The games are a prelude to Washington's league opener here October 8 against Fremont.

Carlmont is even more of an unknown quantity than the Huskies. A brand-new school located near Belmont on the Peninsula, it probably will field a passing team. Its coach, Joe Ferum, is fresh from understudying Joe Verducci at San Francisco State, where the air arm is supreme.

"Since we seem to be weak on pass defense, that might mean the ball-game," says Voorhees, returning to the coach's traditional pre-game worry stance.

Carlmont features an attack spearheaded by Quarterback Austin Parlette and Fulback Eldon Focht, according to the meager dope available.

Washington gave Voorhees some cause for cautious optimism on Saturday. The first all-out scrimmage saw a unit quarterbacked by Senior Veteran Tino Rangel outscore one run by Sophomore Tim Riedy, 6-0.

Running off the split-T formation instead of last year's variations, halfbacks Eddie Fletcher and Ernie Soto showed the results of two years' lightweight experience. Ron Masuda blocked sharply from fullback until he suffered a charley-horse. Masuda has been undergoing heat treatments this week, and may be ready despite his sore leg.

Fletcher faces a stiff battle at the left half spot from Jess Pineda, while the 160-pound Riedy — improving fast — is providing welcome insurance at QB behind Rangel.

In the line, Voorhees singled out Conrad Preciado at guard and rangy Ken Galloway, an end, as stars of the pre-game practice.

On the Pup squad, Johnson said his line "appears totally green," but saw some cause for rejoicing in the work of Johnny Adams, an experienced quarterback.

Warm Springs Zoning Ok'd; Wright Votes No

Protective zoning for Warm Springs was recommended Monday, but only after "no" votes by County Planning Commissioners R. J. Wright, Irvington; and John Gardella, Livermore.

The issue now goes to the Supervisors.

Last week, the planning commission held its final hearing, attended by a delegation from Warm Springs headed by Bruce Michael, president of the chamber of commerce.

Before the vote, Wright inquired if an 83-acre tract held by Hugh Jackson of Palo Alto and other investors was to be zoned for homes.

Staff members replied it had been planned for agricultural use, and Michael's delegation said they want it that way because they fear an influx of cheap houses will unbalance the area's economy.

"If Jackson's in on it, I'm for it," Wright declared. "If not, I'm against it." Then he and Gardella voted no, but were overruled by four other votes.

However it later developed that one commissioner, Fred Mellmann, was absent, and that the necessary two-thirds majority (five out of seven) wasn't obtained.

On Monday another vote was taken. This time Wright was absent, but Gardella changed his vote and the issue passed

No houses had been planned immediately for the Jackson tract, located on Landing Road near the Irvington sewer plant. Warm Springs residents feared a big cheap subdivision there would bring heavy tax burdens without much assessed valuation. They asked that "better" areas be set aside for homes.

Newark Junior High Work To Start In Month

Construction of the Newark "intermediate" school should begin shortly after November 1, it was announced today by the board of trustees of the Newark School District.

Bids will be open this week and funds will be allocated at the October 19 meeting of the State Allocations Board. Actual construction will begin as soon as the contract is drawn up by the District Attorney.

In last week's meeting, the Newark school board authorized the purchase of a 79-passenger school bus to replace the present 12-year-old bus which was secured from War Surplus and is now worn out.

The board also authorized purchase of a station wagon for general school use, which includes transportation of a few children who live in outlying districts. Superintendent Jack MacGregor estimates that use of the station wagon for this purpose rather than the more expensive regular school bus saves the district $1000 annually.

Rotary Official To Visit Here

Dr. Adam Paterson of San Leandro, district governor of Rotary International, will pay his annual official visit to the Niles club today.

He will lunch with the club at its regular meeting in the International Kitchen, and later will attend a club's assembly dinner.

Conway - Culligan Dispute Over

FEARS REC' DISTRICT

Glenmoor Eyes 'Solo' Government

In an effort to escape being blanketed into a Township recreation district, homeowners in Glenmoor Gardens this week appealed to the County Boundary Commission to let them form their own "city without city government."

The Glenmoor Homeowners Association asked that a "community services district", handling fire protection, street work, lights, sewers, water and similar services be formed. Area suggested was between Highway 17, the Eastshore Freeway route, Central and Mowry avenues.

"We don't want to be an exclusive section, off by ourselves," explained James R. Meyer, builder of the subdivision and a Homeowner director. "We just want out of this recreation district. We have our own parks and playgrounds, and we don't want double taxation."

Meyer said the boundary commissioners told him Tuesday in Oakland they think the service district idea is sound, but that they would prefer to see it extended over a wider area.

Meantime, alarmed by what some members consider a threat to cityhood for Centerville, the local chamber of commerce on Monday issued an urgent invitation to Meyer to come to the chamber's next meeting and explain the plan. Centerville has been discussing cityhood for several months.

Secretary LeRoy Broun commented a service district "is just another tax district without accomplishing anything . . . they're still governed by the Supervisors and County Planning Commission."

Broun urged all city-minded areas to wait for word from the Coro Foundation, which is seeking funds for a cityhood study for the central part of the Township.

However Meyer replied in an interview with this newspaper that his people consider that an 18-month wait for cityhood, as envisioned by the Coro representatives, is too long.

"We'd rather see the Township as one big city," Meyer declared. "However since that doesn't seem possible because of some folks' attitude, then we'd like to see Centerville incorporate.

"There again though, nothing has been done. We're just trying to protect ourselves. We don't want our area butchered up like parts of Los Angeles."

Centerville Presbyterian Church Okehs New Site

Purchase of a 3½-acre site on Central Avenue to house the 101-year old Presbyterian Church of Centerville was authorized Tuesday by a special congregational meeting.

The church has optioned land on the Norris property for a reported $5500 an acre.

Commercial development along Main Street has caused the congregation to consider moving from the landmark it now occupies, a church edifice which celebrated its centennial last year.

Ratification of the purchase of the Central Avenue site must be obtained first from the San Francisco Presbytery and the Comity Commission, an interchurch body, according to the pastor, Dr. Tom Fuhr.

Fatal Truck Accident Here

Lawrence Anthony Mendoza, 38, of Sunol, was killed Sunday when the brakes on a truck loaded with hay failed and pinned him against a barn on the Egan Ranch, five miles east of Mission San Jose.

Requiem mass for Egan will be celebrated Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in St. Augustine's Church, Pleasanton. Interment will be in St. Augustine Cemetery under direction of Berge Mortuary, Niles.

Mendoza's body was found crushed between the truck and the barn by Daniel Laughlin, a ranch visitor. The County coroner's office said he had been dead two hours. He was a native of the Sunol area.

He leaves his widow, Minnie; two children, Richard Lawrence and Carol Ann Mendoza; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Mendoza, all of Sunol.

House Number Surv'y Rapped

A $4600 county house-number survey came under heavy fire Tuesday at the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber had written Supervisor Chester Stanley asking how soon the survey — contracted with a Redwood City firm — would produce a uniform numbering system.

Stanley replied in a letter stating that there must be some misunderstanding — the survey is designed only to find out whether it is better to control numbering throughout the entire county or just in the rural areas.

Baine Leask and Dr. T. C. Wilson, longtime advocates of action on uniform numbering, exploded with exasperation. They called the survey "a $4600 waste," and called for immediate action.

In other business, Dr. Joseph B. Enos and Frank Brown were named to a "watchdog" committee sought by Centerville interests to oversee expenditures of the Union Sanitary District. They will meet with the Centerville chamber committee.

Dr. Enos also asked that the Niles committee to study incorporation should visit Los Altos and see how a "contract" type of city operates.

TWO LOSSES

Washington Hi C &D basketball teams opened their season last week with a pair of losses to Menlo-Atherton. The C score was 48-28, and the D score was 37-21.

...Just Have To Pay 'Em Oftener

Monthly water bills aren't necessarily more convenient, and would cost taxpayers $700 a month or more extra.

Thus the Alameda County Water District replied last week to a plea for a change from bi-monthly billings made by the Centerville Chamber of Commerce.

Direct costs would total an additional $700, not counting hiring of extra clerical help, said Water Mgr. Matt Whitfield Jr.

Centerville members who had sought the change as a convenience also were informed most customers paid every other month in the first place, which caused the water district to change to bi-monthly billings.

Too Hot To Fish, So Why Clothes?

It must have been real hot last Friday, according to Gideon H. Smith, Niles roofer.

Smith was arrested while driving across the San Mateo Bridge. He was completely nude. His clothes were not in the car.

"I've been fishing," Smith told Highway Patrolman Warren Worsham.

He was jailed on a drunken driving charge.

Irvington To Push 'Limits' North, South

Fast-growing Irvington this week took steps to push its "city limits" further out.

Allan Hirsch told a chamber of commerce meeting he thinks the town signs should be moved to a spot beyond PG&E Road on the north and to Landing Road on the south. A committee — Hirsch, Jack Stevenson and Joe Alter — will report on the problem next week.

Subdividers were present at the night meeting on invitation of Chamber Pres. A. E. Alameda, who solicited their advice and aid in helping Irvington develop.

Charles A. Russell said he has plans for "a 100-home tract of $30,000 houses east of Irvington, a new Piedmont," and that he also will break ground this week for another 100-plus homes south of town.

SAFETY MEASURES

A study of ways to prevent left turns onto Baine Avenue from Main Street was suggested Monday to the Centerville Chamber of Commerce by Eugene Manning. The chamber also agreed to ask the State to place another crosswalk opposite the Postoffice, at the urging of Fred Richardson.

Two-score homeowners started moving into the Irvington Square tract Tuesday, following settlement of a long dispute between Conway & Culligan, builders; and the Alameda County Water District.

Conway & Culligan on Monday signed a contract with the district which gives the public utility title to the tract pipe system when it is completed. The builders claim this policy is unfair.

Meantime the district refused to turn on the water, which kept many families who had bought homes out of the tract.

Several of these families were lodged in motels or hotels at Conway & Culligan expense, according to a builder representative.

Bernard R. Gillis, contractor spokesman, said eight families moved into the tract Tuesday when the water was turned on. By Friday, Gillis told the Irvington Chamber of Commerce, 50 houses will be occupied. Gillis said C&C is erecting homes at the rate of 15 a week, with an eventual goal of 1200 houses.

Conway & Culligan last week were turned down again by the Supervisors, to whom they had appealed in an effort to start their own water district. A pair of wells drilled for this district will be taken over by the Alameda County Water District at a price to be set by arbiters.

Conway & Culligan made it plain during the negotiations that they reserve the right to sue the district to make it change its policy of assuming ownership of tract pipes.

News, Register Move To New Quarters

Occupation of the new NEWS-REGISTER plant in Centerville was announced today by George H. Oakes and Stuart Nixon, owners of the consolidated Washington NEWS and Township REGISTER.

As construction of the 63x85-foot concrete block structure at 177 Fremont Avenue, Centerville neared completion, and as soon as last week's newspapers were off the press, skilled movers hauled vital heavy machinery aboard trucks in both the Niles and Centerville plants of the newspapers.

By Thursday night, virtually every necessary machine had been shifted to the new building. This week's paper is printed there.

On October 14, the NEWS and REGISTER will become a single paper. Remaining subscribers who have taken both papers will receive full credit on subscriptions to the consolidated NEWS-REGISTER.

Oakes and Nixon described the move as a necessary step in modernization and enlargement of the Township's community newspaper.

The Niles office will be maintained for an indefinite period as a convenience to the public.

Fatima Day Fete Set October 5

The fifth annual Fatima Day Rosary Procession at the Holy Family Novitiate, Mission San Jose, has been set for Sunday, October 10, at 2:30 p.m.

"In this Marian Year, Our Lady's Fatima tribute takes on a new significance as many societies and organizations select the Novitiate grounds as part of their Marian Year pilgrimages," according to sisters of the Holy Family.

The grounds on which the Novitiate is situated is part of the original land of the old Mission San Jose de Guadalupe which was built by the Franciscan Padres in 1797, and provides a devotional setting for the thousands who gather annually to honor their Holy Mother Mary.

Again the Padres come to the old Mission grounds in the person of the guest speaker, Reverend Terence Cronin, O.F.M.

Residents of the Bay Area are invited to attend.

New Look, New Phone Number

With this week's move of the Township REGISTER and Washington NEWS to Centerville, both papers start converting to a new "head dress" and advertising makeup, made possible by purchase of a new Intertype typesetting machine.

Also, printing on a modern Goss Comet press makes possible the addition of an eighth column to the former 7-column papers.

Readers are asked to write down the papers' new telephone number — Centerville 8-8378. The Niles office is still open under Mrs. Leontine Costa, but the majority of business is now transacted in Centerville at the new plant, 177 Fremont Avenue.

Hayward Gobbles Piece of Township

Overriding objections raised by Decoto spokesmen, the Hayward city last week voted for the 337-acre Washington annex to come into Hayward.

Nearly 1700 homes will be constructed on two tracts which compose the annex. Tentative maps have already been submitted to the city by subdividers Oliver Rousseau and Goforth Homes.

Washington annex lies south of the Hayward Golf course on the Hayward-Niles road. Its inclusion in the city extends the city boundary almost to Decoto, or right next to Hillview Crest.

Harold Strauel, president of the Decoto Community Coordinating council, appealed to Hayward councilmen to postpone the annexation "until some problems are solved."

Strauel said his organization has six points of criticism — surface drainage, variance in lot size, fire protection, police protection, natural connections with Decoto rather than Hayward and that "the city is making a decision which may not be acceptable to future buyers" of homes in the new tract.

City Manager Lohn Ficklin retorted the standards for drainage and lot size were up to county specifications and are the same as now used in Decoto itself.

"The other objections," Ficklin said, are matters of opinion."

MISSION SAN JOSE

By TEDDY PEREIRA

This is the fifth year the Sisters of the Holy Family have set aside a special day to honor Our Lady of Fatima, not only for the Catholics of the area, but for all denominations.

With outstretched arms Our Holy Mother Mary pleads with us to come to her that she may help us erase the unkindness of the world. She asks only that we permit her to refresh us with her love, so that we can forgive and forget the grievances we have known.

Remember, too, when you save Sunday, October 10 for Our Blessed Lady you gladden her heart because you will be honoring Christ, her Son; and the immortality His resurrection brings home to us makes it impossible to forget the overwhelming implications of our faith.

The Sisters of the Holy Family in Mission San Jose invite you all to be their guests October 10 for this impressive outdoor procession and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament beneath the stately palm and pine trees which seem to stand like sentinels of God. The acres of garden and lawns are unusually beautiful this year and the Sisters have toiled endless hours to make "Her day and your day" one to cherish.

This year many thousands of miles will deprive me of some of the joy of this occasion, but wherever I may be I shall kneel in some cathedral or chapel and be with you in spirit.

We hope the day will be a glorious one of sunshine but even if it should rain or be cold, Our Lady would not mind, for she will know your hearts are radiating with the warmth of your love for her.

Voters Urged To Back Plea For High School Tax

Township voters on October 19 will take a second look at the future of the Washington Union High School District. They will again be asked to approve a 50c permissive tax, an increase which they denied by a vote of 1541 to 1418 last May.

Trustees point out that local high school problems have become exteremely critical in view of mounting school enrollments. The 1200 pupils who are crammed into a plant designed to accommodate 700, will receive some relief when the $1,000,000 addition is completed at the end of December. By next Fall, however, enrollment is expected to go over the 1500 mark.

Having adequate space solves one problem, but District Superintendent J. V. Goold stresses that other critical situations can be solved "only by increased income to the district."

"Even though the new buildings will be available by the first of the year, some areas, particularly the shops, will not be used because of a lack of teachers," Goold warns. Current income based on the present 75c tax rate, has made it necessary for the district to maintain a salary schedule which puts the beginning high school teacher below the starting level adopted by the elementary schools of Washington Township."

For the next year, the district is faced with the need of hiring 12 new teachers to take care of an increased student body as well as an expanded classroom offering. At the present starting level, Goold states that it will be "extremely difficult to hire qualified and fully certificated teachers." There is not another high school district in the entire State with an enrollment comparable to that of the local high school, today operating at the 75c tax rate. In view of this fact, this district cannot compete with other areas in the hiring of new teachers, the superintendent explained.

"The problem of maintaining the present 30-year old plant as well as the soon-to-be-completed addition, points up the need for hiring new custodial personnel at an adequate salary," say the trustees.

"Some of the school's busses should be replaced, and larger and more efficient ones be acquired. It was necessary to eliminate one bus from this year's budget, and as a result a modified double-schedule gets some students to school forty-five minutes before classes begin in the morning.

"In order to maintain a well-rounded curriculum to the needs of the pupils and to re-establish adequate library facilities, increased revenue must be forthcoming."

The district, in the past, has provided students and parents with many services which have this year been eliminated. Each year every student had the advantage of a physical examination as well as the protection of insurance coverage. At the present time, the financial responsibility for an injury at school rests with the family of the injured student. Says the veteran Goold:

"The problem is great and becomes more acute day-by-day. Only a "YES" vote on October 19 to increase the high school tax rate can solve the problem and maintain the standard of secondary education in Washington Township."

She was a native of Portugal and a member of S.P.R.S.I. 105, Irvington.

Funeral services will be held Friday, October 1, from the Berge Mortuary at Irvington at 8:30 a.m., thence to St. Joseph's, Mission San Jose for requiem mass at 9 a.m., with interment in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery. Rosary is Thursday at 8 p.m. at the funeral parlor.

In order to raise funds for their work the boys decided to have a car wash on October 2 at the Centerville Elementary School. They will operate all day and wash cars for $1.00.

Plans were started for a joint meeting with Jobs Daughters on a date to be decided later.

The Mothers Club served refreshments after the meeting.

SP Back On Old Time

Arrival and departure times for nearly all trains operated by Southern Pacific solely within the state remain the same, although California returned to Standard Time on September 26, Fred E. Watson, the railroad's general passenger agent for this area, announced today.

The railroad will simply make a one hour adjustment in its operations to compensate for the statewide time change.

Southern Pacific trains unaffected by the return to Standard Time include the San Joaquin Daylight and Northbound Owl on the Valley Route; nearly all local trains between the Oakland and Sacamento areas, and the Coast Daylight, Lark and Starlight, on the Coast Route.

The southbound Owl will leave Oakland Pier one hour earlier than present Daylight Saving time in order to continue its connection with the Shasta Daylight at Martinez.

Southern Pacific trains crossing state lines will operate one hour earlier than at present. These interstate trains include the Shasta Daylight, Cascade and Klamath, on the Shasta Route, and the City of San Francisco, Overland and Gold Coast, between the Bay Area and Chicago. During the Daylight Saving period, these trains continued on Standard Time schedules.

County Fire Ordinance Adopted

Alameda County joined the rest of California last week when local Supervisors adopted a county-wide fire-prevention law.

The ordinance gives power of enforcement to local fire chiefs and provides a $500 fine or six months imprisonment for violation.

It requires a permit for kindling and maintaining a bonfire, barbecue, or rubbish fire and sets up conditions for burning waste; it continues existing laws appertaining to self-service gas stations.

It requires approval of the fire chief for burning of wrecked or discharged autos; adopts standards of the National Fire Protection Association for sale and storage of cellulose, nitrate film, plastics, liquids and gases, chemicals and explosives; it contains general regulations to prevent fires; pertaining to storage of combustible materials. dry hay, straw and weeds, inflation of inflammable balloons, use of flammable decorative materials in stores, and placement of lighted candles on any tree or shrub.

It deals with fire suppression, such as making it unlawful for any person to hinder a fireman in performance of his duty; it applies safety fire regulations to lumber yards and woodworking plants; it regulates wholesale and retail storage of matches.

Fire chiefs of the county's 16 fire protection districts appeared before the board to seek passage of the ordinance.

Chiefs who took part in preparation of the ordinance included Joseph Pashote, Newark; and Frank Madruga, Centerville.

Purpose of the amendment is to obtain uniformity of fire prevention regulations throughout the county, where eight fire protection districts operate with the board of supervisors as their governing body and eight operate under the jurisdiction of independent commissions.

The ordinance will become law in the eight districts governed by the Board of Supervisors within 30 days, and copies of the new legislation with the request that they repeal any district rules in conflict with it will be dispatched immediately to the eight independent districts.

Niles Invited To Firehouse

Niles residents are invited to visit their firehouse during Fire Prevention Week, October 3 to 9.

All Newark Rec' Heads Must Run

All five Newark Recreation District Trustees must seek re-election to the Board at the November 2 general election, according to word from the Alameda County District Attorney's office.

Three members, Mrs. Norma Willburn, Mrs. Lillian Costa and Judson Taylor, will run for a four-year term. Neil Sheffield and Orvil Haynes will be on the ballot for a two-year term.

Newark residents wishing to oppose the incumbents for election to the board can file up to 20 days prior to election day. Petitions, which must be signed by 10 registered voters, may be obtained at the office of Board Secretary Robert Amaral in the Newark Shopping Center.

$2,300,000 Local Projects By PG&E

The Pacific Gas and Electric Co. is spending $2,300,000 on two projects in Washington Township, one at Decoto and the other in the Irvington-Milpitas area.

The company will center all of its pipe wrapping operations at Decoto following completion of an $800,000 building there. The building, 280 feet long and 140 feet wide, will shelter pipe handling and wrapping equipment, and will require 35 employes when in full service. The plant is nearly finished.

Wrapping now done at Emeryville will be performed at Decoto when the building is completed, and the company also will transfer its operations at Davis to the new plant. The pipe is coated with several layers of asphalt enamel and covered with wrapping paper as protection against corrosion.

The second development is a $1,500,000 pipeline between Milpitas and Irvington which will deliver an additional 50,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas daily to the East Bay this winter.

The distance between PG&E's Milpitas and Irvington gas-control stations is 6½ miles. Nearly 10 miles of 22, 24, 30 and 34-inch pipe and 6,100 feet of a 3-inch distribution main near Irvington is included in the project. The crew, working south, is now near the Alameda-Santa Clara County line.

Part of an existing 22-inch main is being rerouted so that all mains supplying gas to the East Bay can be inter-connected at Irvington.

At Last! Plans May Come Here

Will Mohammed come to the mountain? Maybe.

Planning Commission hearings, heretofore held in Oakland to the annoyance of rural petitioners, may be held "in the area affected" if a request by the Board of Supervisors this week is followed.

The Supervisors wrote the Planning Commission asking if, in order to accommodate people who must otherwise travel 50 or 60 miles to Oakland and return, the hearings cannot be held in rural school auditoriums or other convenient locations.

Supervisor Chester Stanley explained there is no law that forces the hearings to be held in Oakland, but that they have been held there by tradition.

CAROLLING AROUND NEWARK

JEANNE & GENE CARROLL
NEWARK 3-3564

AROUND TOWN—We've heard several comments regarding a letter to the editor which appeared in these papers recently and have yet to find anyone who would want to live among the factories and chemical works and "point with pride to the $75,000 homes on the rolling hills". Most people we've interviewed on the subject would refer to point with pride to their own modest little piece of real estate down here in the flat country where they can live happily with the wife and kids in their modest homes, surrounded by friendly neighbors who feel a pride in owning their modest possessions too.

A Teen Club has been formed in Newark and it has adopted a set of rules governing members' conduct during their evenings at the Community Center. This has been done with the appoval of the trustees and recreation director. Membership is limited to the teen-age group, 13 thru 19, with the proviso that all members must be still attending school. Members may bring a guest to the dances but they are responsible for the conduct of the guest. With strict rules about dress (no levis) and behavior following the pattern of other successful teen clubs, the newly-formed club elected a slate of officers: Eddie Santos is president and serving with him are: Duane Carnes, vice-president; Shirley Brannon, secretary and Gaye Carroll, treasurer. Any teenagers interested in joining the club are welcome.

Movie Time . . . The "Bullfighters" is the movie to be shown this Friday nite at the Community Center Bldg., starting at 7 p.m. Everyone is invited.

Rev. Martin Tonner dedicated the new electric organ for the Presbyterian Church on September 19. The first recital was given last Wednesday and Rev. Tonner's sister, Mrs. Virginia Tonner Baker was at the keyboard. Mrs. Baker's husband, Charles; and their daughter, Caroline who is starting her 2nd year at Stanford, were in attendance. Fred L. Tonner, father of Rev. Tonner and Mrs. Baker also came to the recital and stayed for a few days as guests of his son.

Ted and Barbara Eicher were hosts to a pair of welcome houseguests for ten days. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bissett (Barbara's parents) were up from Phoenix, Arizona on their vacation.

Congratulations to Dave and Ann Hernandez; they celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary September 28.

A paper drive will be held Saturday, October 16. So start and Boy Scouts to collect on saving your papers for the Girl this day.

Richard and Gladys Texera enjoyed having his parents, M/Sgt. and Mrs. William Stancisco visit with them earlier this month. The Stanciscos also visited with their son Walter Texera and family at their Dondero Way home. Sgt. Stancisco received transfer orders from Schofield Barracks Hawaii, to Fort Lewis, Washington, thus making their visit here possible.

Tony Rose, Joe and Lorraine Soito, Rose Martin, Jackie and Judy Martin, LaVerne Soito and Jerry Gonsalves of Niles went up to Lodi for the Grape Festival on September 19. LaVerne and Judy rode in the parade . . . probably the last time Judy will ride her pony Honey, because her mom and dad gave her a four-year-old palomino which she calls Sonny.

Gary Arnold went to San Jose Hospital last week for an operation to correct difficulties resulting from twice breaking his arm.

Just off the wire . . . are the carroll-grams for this week . . . being sent to . . . Roy Jensen Jr. who celebrated his eleventh birthday on Sept. 16 with eleven of his classmates present . . . to Bernice Hobbs who had two pretty candles burning on her cake last week . . . to Orvil Haynes as he marked another big day last Thursday . . . to Joan Milani who was fourteen on Tuesday . . . to Rochelle Hudson, a sweet young thing of one as of today . . . to Cathy Arnold who will be celebrating number 11 on Sunday.

Lee Tonner is going to be one busy young man this fall as he qualified for a position in the College of Pacific marching band as a drummer; will be a celloist in the C.O.P. orchestra and earned a position in the Acapella Choir . . . plus his studies too. Lee transferred from Deep Springs College and is a sophomore at C.O.P.

Train and merry-go-round cakes were the special treat at the birthday party for Eddie Mello and Johnny Binder who both celebrated their eighth birthdays at a party co-hosted by their moms, Margaret Mello and Pat Binder. It took a diesel engine to pull the load of goodies served to their young friends: Linda, Mickey and Gail Maciel; Rodney, David and Cathy Thiessen; Roddy Sammon; Andy and Kieth Anderson; Andy Potts; Skip Lacey; Shirley and Tommy Pavao; David Cardoza; Johnny Snyder; David Campagna; Karen Costa; Richie and Jerry Mello; Barbara, Veronica, Patricia, Carolyn and Tommy Binder plus a couple of extra mommies, Mary Maciel and Maurine Thiessen.

Joe and Veronica Silva held an open house for their friends and relatives at their Alviso district home on September 19. It was a wonderful occasion as they received congratulations on their silver wedding anniversary. The Silvas have one son, Stephen, nine.

If you noticed a scarcity of men around town last weekend, your eyes weren't deceiving you at all. Plenty were up in Modoc waiting to draw a bead on a buck on opening day of the deer season. Among the lucky ones going up (coming back too, we hope) were Harold and Joe Caldeira, Vernon DeValle, Jim McCullough, Joe Milani, Gene Mendes and Lawrence Silva.

Dell and Marge Young and son Greg found their home echoing happy greetings during September when Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Sigler (Marge's grandparents) of Olympia, Washington and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young (Dell's parents) of Glendive, Montana came to town for visits.

Dinner guests last Thursday at the Leo Bohannons were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bohannon who were leaving the next morning on a three week trip to Drumright, Oklahoma.

Marge Bohannon and Polly Milan gave a joint birthday dinner in honor of "mom & pop", who celebrated birthdays the previous Tuesday and Wednesday, at the Bohannon home. The honored guests were Ken and Mae Sawyer of Oakland and in attendance was another daughter and family, Jessie and Betty Williams and son Paul from Oakland. Happy birthdays came from their grandchildren, Mickey and Renee Milan and Dale, Leona, Sharon and Susan Bohannon, and two guys in the background named Bob and Leo.

No Polio Yet In Tots Who Got Shots

Southern Alameda County has reported 17 more polio cases than at this time last year but there has not been a single case of polio among inoculated children, according to County Health Officer James C. Malcolm.

The Alameda County health department said the Salk vaccine can't be credited yet with protecting the youngsters because the control group has so far remained uninfected also.

Dr. Malcolm cautioned there is "no justification for satisfaction yet," since only half the children received the serum while the other half were "controls" and received a harmless neutral substance.

A total of 7,166 first, second and third graders in the schools were tested, about 800 of them in Washington Township.

There is a total of 54 cases from San Leandro south this year compared to 37 cases up to this time last year.

SUZY SEZ...

Isn't it strange, our youngest loves playing with water, but hates taking baths!

One advantage grandpa had in the good old days is that with poorer means of communication grandma didn't have to buy a new style dress so often.

Pardon me for comparing, but some of the so-called "best sellers" are more indecent than those in the recent censorship uproar. You may have one or two of them yourselves that aren't really fit for teenagers.

Have you heard of the fellow looking for a friend in Newark, and even without the address he found him easily. The friend's bright blue 1954 car is too big to get into his garage.

Aren't those new bus benches with the schedules posted on them a welcome addition to the Township?

When I see the number of motorcycles in Niles it's no wonder there's hill-climbs and racing on the back roads nearby.

After seeing the Parade of Homes I still feel that the designers should ask a woman before they plan a kitchen floor-plan. Men just don't think of the inconvenience in having the stove and sink eight feet apart.

How many others besides my youngest noticed the brush hanging above the sidewalk near the gift shop in Centerville?

According to my spies, several of the ladies who attended the cooking school tried out the jelly-roll recipe, and were successful, too.

I've found it isn't always a woman who knows the latest gossip, including scandals and rumors, it's a barber.

Why is it, even if guest towels are clearly marked, people hate to use them?

After trying everything else, a Centerville mother now ties up her two-year-old when he runs away. He thinks it's a game though, pretending he's a dog.

I'd rather send my 'teen-ager away to college and see that the money to be spent for one in Alameda County was spent for more elementary schools, to do away with double sessions.

I see the signs at Santos Road and Highway Seventeen are still in disagreement over whether it's two or three miles to Niles.

An Irvington mother says she'll be glad when they get a newer car. The first few nights she attended night school, all the neighbors heard the noisy old family auto returning, and hurried over the next day to find out where she'd been.

If you're over-stocked with tomatoes, try making up some spicy sauce, and freeze, for use on Spanish rice, chili or spaghetti.

The poor woman who always said her children were her hobby has found now that they're grown, she is lost in hours of idle time.

So long . . .

Township Beach Park Plan Gets County OK

A beach-side park for Washington Township is part of a master plan for shoreline development of Alameda County, approved last week by the Alameda County Planning Commission.

The plan paves the way for the county to get a half-million dollars of "matching" State funds for the project.

The plan is subject to final action of the Board of Supervisors.

From the county's standpoint the plan would provide two major beach park sites with diversified recreation facilities, (1) in the San Leandro area and (2) in the Coyote Hills area between Alvarado and Newark.

The northern site would be adjacent to the eastern terminus of the southern bay crossing and at the junction of the East Shore Freeway and the State Highway No. 50 freeway.

The second major park area would be located in the Coyote Hills in Washington Township, one of the most rapidly growing areas in California, a County Planning Commission report says.

The latter beach park would be adjacent to the Dumbarton Bridge road. It would serve populations in Washington Township, the Livermore Valley, the peninsula, and Santa Clara County.

Development of a shoreline parkway between the two major sites will provide a scenic drive, wayside park facilities, picnic areas, bicycle and bridal paths, according to the plans.

The report concludes that the preliminary shoreline plan was developed "after a comprehensive, county-wide study of both existing and future land uses, transportation, and public services and facilities."

Yma Sumac Troupe To Play San Jose

San Jose's 19th Annual Concert Series opens Monday evening October 11, with YMA Sumac and her Company of Inca Dancers-Musicians.

Other events of the San Jose Series include Gina Bachauer, Greek pianist, December 3; San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, Enrique Jorda conducting, with Ruth Slenczynska as piano soloist, on January 25; the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, February 12; Isaac Stern, violinist, February 18; First Piano Quartet, March 21.

Single seats for YMA Sumac go on sale September 27, but advance mail orders are filed in order of their receipt. Tickets are on sale at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

A disaster-preparedness program will be sponsored by the Decoto Community Coordinating Council, it was decided at a recent meeting. Mrs. Hazel Costa was named chairman to investigate if persons in any department have prepared a master plan for such a program. These persons will be invited to the next meeting on October 18. Extension of social services in the area will be planned. The resignation of Mrs. Arnold Thomas, corresponding secretary, was accepted. A letter was sent to the Health Department asking them to investigate smog in some areas here, causing smarting to the pupil's eyes.

Good luck to Jennie Boliba on her recent operation.

Mary and Mike Garcia and children returned home after several weeks in Crystal City, Texas.

A halloween party will be held at the next Holy Rosary Guild meeting on October 12, it is announced by program chairman Mary Janeiro. Members are asked to wear costumes or pay a penalty fee.

The membership drive in progress now will be under the direction of Mrs. Lester Medeiros. Mrs. Renaldo Caminada spoke to the 4th and 5th grades in regard to posters in connection with this drive. Posters suitable will be selected by Mrs. Medeiros, to be displayed in local business houses. Manuel Seoane was named school education chairman. At this writing Seoane has yet to accept this position. The president of the P.T.A. and Neal Kaufman will be delegates at the Decoto Community Coordinating Council. Mrs. Florence Wallace, health chairman, announced a hearing test would be given to students.

The resignation of Mrs. Joseph Nieto, president was accepted. Mrs. Manuel Seoane, first vice-president will preside at the first meeting to be held on October 13. Candidates are being sought to fill the president's vacancy.

Jaysee Joins 'City' Study

The Washington Township Junior Chamber of Commerce will join local chambers of commerce in a survey to study ways and means of consolidation into a community form of self government.

Joe Wallmann, president, appointed Jack Parry, chairman of a governmental affairs committee, to study civic problems in the township. Other members of the committee include Geoffrey Steel and Don DeForest.

A 4-by-20-foot thermometer will be erected in front of the Alameda County Office Building on Fremont Ave. to indicate the percentage of contributions received in the Washington Township United Crusade drive.

Members of the junior chamber are searching for a touring car of the late 1920s which would be used in parades and other activities in the community. The car would also be equipped with a public address system, according to Parry. It is requested that if anyone knows of a car of this vintage call Harold Belshaw at Irvington 141-W.

WHAT'S DOING

S. D. Smith, your Telephone Manager in Niles

A radio powered by sunlight

For centuries man has dreamed of getting power from the sun. Perhaps you, too, have wondered about it. Well, now it's happened. Bell Telephone Laboratories has invented a solar battery that directly and efficiently turns sunlight into useful amounts of electricity. It's made from an ingredient of common sand. Even at birth, it supplies enough power to run a small radio set (right) or send voices over telephone wires. Much development remains to be done. But the Bell Solar Battery, used with transistors, offers great opportunities for improvement and economies in telephone service. Research like this helps us bring better telephone service to more people at the lowest possible cost. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Free booklet for your personal telephone numbers

Here's your handy guide to the local and out-of-town telephone numbers you call most often. By listing numbers you call frequently in this booklet, you'll be able to find them quickly and easily. And when you give the operator the number you want, out-of-town calls go through twice as fast. For a free copy, just call, write, or drop in at our business office.

NEW ASSISTANT MANAGER FOR HAYWARD OFFICE

The appointment of Al Silva, 18349 Vernon Court, Castro Valley, as Assistant Manager of the Hayward Office was announced this week.

Silva, a native of Washington Township, started work with the Company in 1945 as a lineman and has worked his way up through the ranks to his new position. Another example of the possibilities for advancement made available to our employees.

While other low-priced cars try to catch up, Ford offers the only V-8 in its field. And with its new low-friction, Y-block design, this Ford V-8 is the most modern engine in the industry.

TAKE TIME TO SAVE A LIFE

The following letter was dispatched last week to parents of children at Centerville Elementary School. We believe it merits broader readership.

"We have been very concerned about the safety of our children coming to school, at school, going home from school, and after school. We have an excellent safety record; we appreciate the cooperation parents have given us.

"However, we wish to remind the students and parents of the following:

"The new state law provides that traffic in both directions must stop upon approaching a stopped bus with blinker lights flashing and remain stopped until red lights go off. Flashing lights mean students will be crossing the highway to the left of the bus. If lights are not flashing on a stopped school bus, it is all right to proceed with caution.

"This law was passed for the convenience of motorists, but drivers must watch and observe blinker lights most carefully.

"If in doubt, stop to be sure. A moment wasted may mean a life saved."

We can add to this warning an eyewitness account of a near-accident we observed a few days ago on Thornton Avenue. A Centerville school bus had halted, with lights flashing. The driver dismounted, walked to the left of the bus and signalled cars to stop. But one driver wasn't going to be held up. He simply drove right ahead. The bus driver jumped back at the last possible moment, like a matador dodging a mad bull, or he would surely have been it.

Unfortunately there is too much of the mad bull in too many drivers — tyrants behind a wheel. Rigid enforcement and stiff punishment is the only answer for them.

For the rest of us who occasionally exhibit a tendency to put our speed first and others' safety second, a re-reading of the Centerville School letter is highly recommended. Ask yourself how you would feel if, in your haste, you hurt or killed a child.

IT'S OUR MOVE

Every housewife dreads moving day, and we know why. Between issues during the past week, we have completed the job of shifting quarters to a new building, and a mighty chore it was.

Today the job is done, except for minor clean-ups. We have a large, spacious new home, one in which we can concentrate our attention on producing a better community newspaper, and less on keeping antique machinery running.

We have a modern press, one which can print eight pages at a time instead of four, one which can run off the NEWS and REGISTER in two or three hours instead of 20. There is also a new typesetting machine which will save endless hours of labor, at the same time giving our newspaper a brighter, more modern look. The typesetter costs as much as three Cadillacs, but coupled with the modern press, it should turn out a better product. In the past, because of our outdated machines,we have sometimes had to cut down here, leave out there, just to get the paper out at all. Those days soon will be over. Our aim is a finer, more complete hometown journal, with more features, better departmentalized, to attract more and more readers who will feel pride in their newspaper as a courageous, progressive community voice.

In turn, we hope this will mean more advertising — which heaven knows we're going to need to meet all these payments!

In two more weeks, we intend to finish the merger we started six months ago, and make the NEWS and REGISTER a single paper, carrying both names. Shortly after that, when all the cylinders are perking smoothly, we want to ask you all to visit our new plant. Probably it ought to be called "your" plant, for after all a newspaper is the property of everyone in the community.

Anyhow, we're proud of our new home, and we feel you — our partners — will be proud too.

PUZZLE

If you read Supervisor Stanley's letter explaining his stand on Centerville zoning, you may be excused with the rest of us for puzzling over one paragraph. This is the one where Mr. Stanley says he voted to recommit the issue because the Planning Commission discussed it at an early "impromptu" session where one petitioner had no chance to appear.

The commission threw the zoning back at the Supervisors and vehemently denied any such secret and illegal proceedings. If that is true, then the supervisor is guilty of passing the buck. But if it isn't, then Mr. Stanley as chairman of the board which appoints planning commissioners, is responsible for their anti-public actions. What puzzles us is why he felt it necessary to expose them in a letter to the Centerville Chamber of Commerce?

If Mr. Stanley has knowledge of secret, illegal, doings of the commission, he should take prompt action to halt them at the courthouse level, not by writing plaintive letters to his constituents.
